- A student seminar was organized by the students of the society under the support of the Literary Society where they presented two papers.

The first paper was titled "Calcutta Trilogy" – films Pratidwandi, Shimabaddha and Jana Aranya were discussed and film clippings were shown to make the audience aware of the individual amidst the city scape.

Samama Tarannum Chowdhury, Sneha Saha and Azijur Rahaman (5th Semester students) did a whopping of a job watching The Calcutta Trilogy ... selecting scenes ... talking of the whole idea of the socio-political web and dialectics through the microcosmic panorama of the struggling middle class youth sometimes corporate aspirants and the angst of being caught in the ideology that they themselves set.

- The Second presentation was titled "An Analysis of the Geographical and Historical Background of Katwa". The topic was relevant considering the rich cultural scape where the college is situated.

The presenters were the following students from the Third Semester:

Anusha Ali
Diya Bhattacharya
Raima Saha
Avik Majumdar

The participants were the teachers, students and some alumni members of the department.
